Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

This application has been allowed pursuant to a Notice of Allowance mailed November 5, 2004. The issue and publication fees were paid on January 26, 2005.

Currently, claims 1-9 are allowed in the application.

In reviewing the claims prior to payment of the issue fee, it was noted that claim 1 contains a typographical error and the language of claim 5 is inconsistent with claim 1 from which it depends. This current amendment pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.312 is proposed to correct the typographical error and to render claim 5 consistent with claim 1, as will be explained in more detail in the following remarks.

It will be evident that no new issues are presented by this amendment that require detailed consideration or additional searching, and it is not believed that the amendment will affect the patentability of the claims.

Application No.: 10/724,122
Examiner: Eugene EICKHOLT
Art Unit: 2854

Accordingly, entry of the amendment is believed to be appropriate.
